Shougang Convention & Exhibition Center, Beijing, China

Be Part of China's Leading Trade Show for Motorhomes and Caravans —Join us in European Suppliers Pavilion @ All in CARAVANING

Supported by CARAVAN SALON

The AIC (All in CARAVANING) exhibition, daughter show of CARAVAN SALON DÜSSELDORF, will feature a wide array of caravanning products, including motorhomes, vans, caravans, accessories, extension components, outdoor equipment, and campsites from domestic and international brands. This diverse showcase strengthens connections between Europe and China, promoting technological exchange, market expansion, and mutual development within the global RV industry.

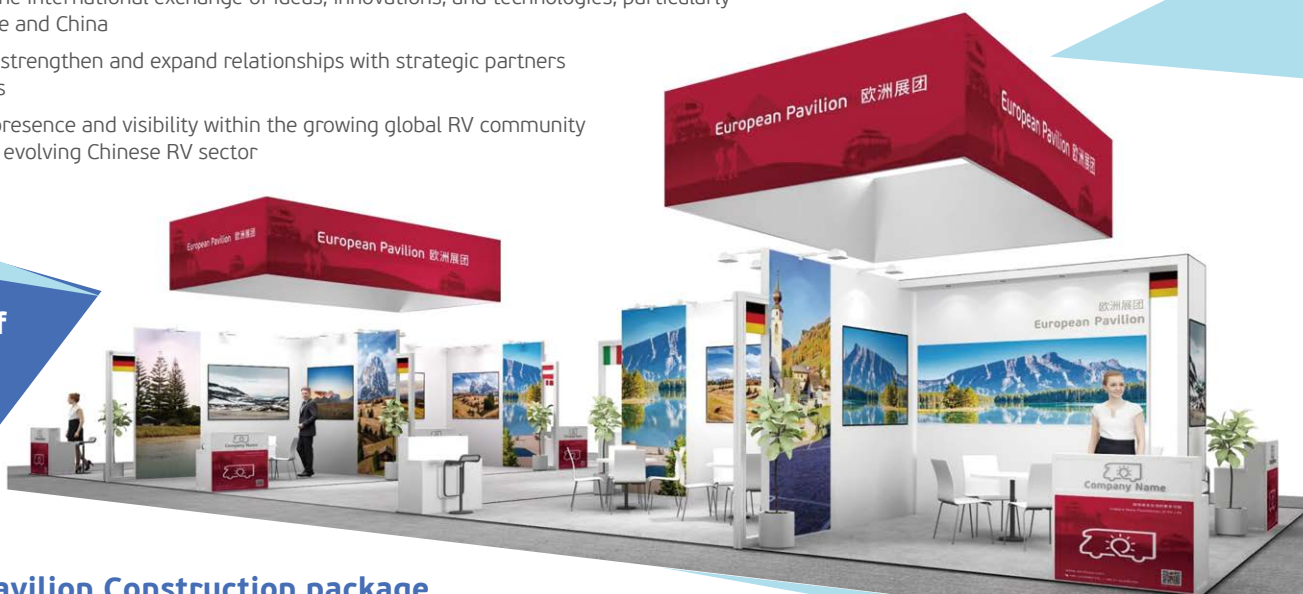

You are invited to participate in a new, exclusive exhibition area dedicated to showcasing leading European RV brands and RV parts at AIC show – the European Suppliers Pavilion. This unique platform offers a remarkable opportunity to display your innovative and high-quality products to a global professional audience, with a particular emphasis on fostering exchange between Europe and China. The new exhibition area will feature a visually captivating collage of European premium products, showcasing Europe's craftsmanship and technological leadership in the RV sector. By participating, you will not only benefit from international business opportunities but also actively contribute to strengthening cooperation between Europe and China, shaping the future of the RV industry.

Benefits of your participation:

- > Showcase your brand and products in a specially curated premium environment
- > Access to a global network of industry experts and potential partners, with a focus on the rapidly growing Chinese market
- > Facilitation of the international exchange of ideas, innovations, and technologies, particularly between Europe and China
- > Opportunity to strengthen and expand relationships with strategic partners in both markets
- > Enhance your presence and visibility within the growing global RV community and the rapidly evolving Chinese RV sector
